BIZARRE SCHOOLS

THINGS KIDS DO AT

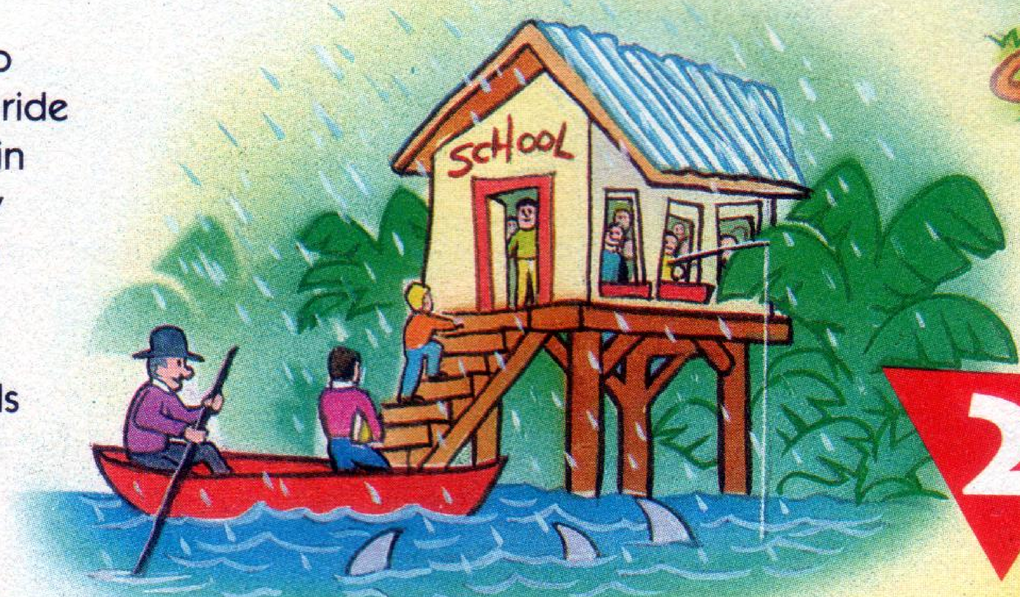

DID YOU EVER WONDER WHAT IT'S LIKE TO GO TO SCHOOL IN ANOTHER COUNTRY?

In the West African country, TOGO, the schools are often far apart. Kids there run several miles to school... in their bare feet! Hope they didn't leave their lunch at home!!

FOX KIDS can walk or ride bikes to school every day. Sometimes you ride the bus or your parents take you in the car. But in GUYANA, a country in South America, it rains so much that sometimes the kids in Guyana ride back and forth to school in a boat! And their schools are built on stilts above the water to keep them dry. What a wild way to go to HIGH School!

Think it's hard to wake up on school days? Need an alarm clock to get up in time? What if you had to set an alarm clock to know when to go to bed? Well, in NORWAY, some kids live so close to the North Pole, the Sun doesn't set for 10 weeks out of the year! And in the winter, the Sun never rises, so kids in Norway have to go to school in the dark!

WALKING ACROSS

400 B.C.	91 A.D.	410	598	1548	1620
School is for grown-ups only. No kids allowed. Children help parents with their homework.	Public schools for kids open in Rome, Italy. Parents help kids with their homework.	Rome gets invaded. School's out for years making it the longest school vacation in history.	First English schools begin. More homework.	Schools shut down during religious wars in England. Kids given enough homework to last for years.	First schools begin in colonial America. Even more homework.

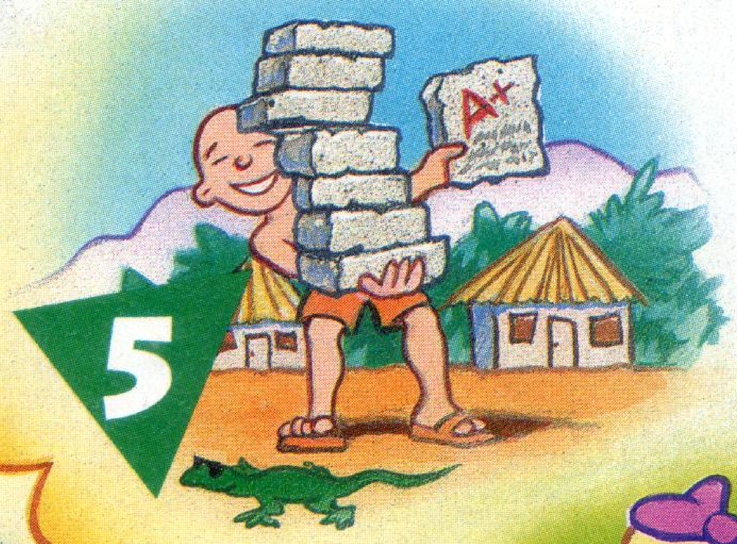

Tune into the looniest loons in their own wacky school every afternoon on Tiny Toon Adventures—only on Fox!

AROUND THE WORLD

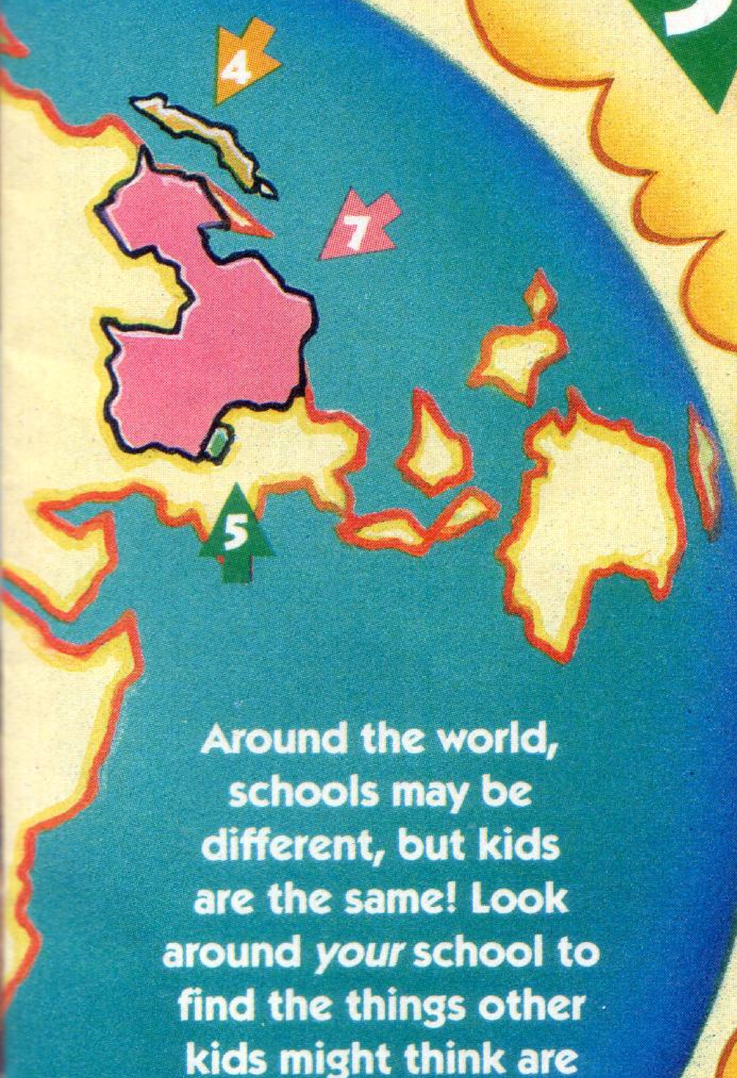

CHECK OUT THESE REALLY COOL SCHOOLS, AND SEE ALL THE NEAT STUFF OTHER KIDS DO!

Speaking of feet, FOX KIDS have to wear shoes to school. This makes it hard to count on your toes in math class. Can you imagine having to keep track of two pairs of shoes everyday? In JAPAN and KOREA kids leave their regular shoes at the school front door and put on special "indoor shoes" made of cloth or straw. This is a tradition that goes way back... maybe to an ancient shoe salesman?

Like most FOX KIDS, bet you sit at a desk and write on notebook paper with a pencil. Bet you have a load of homework to do, too. You think you've got it tough? Look at these kids in BHUTAN, a country in Asia. They sit on the floor of their classroom to study and write on big chunks of wood or stone with chalk. And you thought you had some heavy homework!

Around the world, schools may be different, but kids are the same! Look around your school to find the things other kids might think are different and cool!

All FOX KIDS should start out their school day with breakfast, like oatmeal, cereal or eggs. But kids in France enjoy a really special treat for breakfast. It's called le petit déjeuner, which means "little breakfast." Kids there smear a hunk of French bread with butter and chocolate, then they dunk it in a bowl of milk and coffee. I wonder what they would do with oatmeal?

Gym or P.E. is a must for all FOX KIDS. But while you're doing jumping jacks and stretches, kids in CHINA also do eye exercises!! Look up! Look down! Now left! Now right! Stretch those eye muscles! No more tired eyes, and you always know where the teacher is!

TIME TO SCHOOL

1906	1970's	1989	1992	2023	2150
School cafeteria lunch is served and "Mystery Meat" is invented. Junior High Schools begin. Lots more homework.	First computers and calculators used in schools. Kids think homework will now be easier. No such luck.	FOX KIDS CLUB starts!! Kids happy for something to do besides homework.	(Write Your Name Here) is in (Your Grade) grade. I bet you have homework, don't you?	First school opens on the Moon. Kids walk home in gravity boots... to do their lunar homework.	Mars High School Football team is defeated by the Planet Earth All-Stars. Earth kids find out Mars kids have homework too.

TAZ's™ TEST TIPS

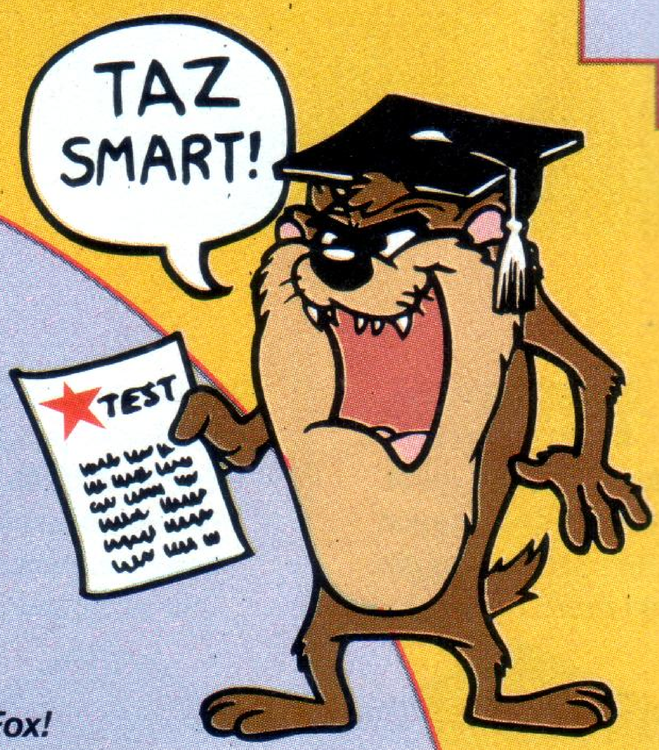

Does taking tests turn your thoughts topsy-turvy? Well, Taz had the same trouble, until he tried these terrific tips!

Eat energy foods like carrots and bran muffins. Stay away from foods that make you tired or nervous like cookies, potato chips and candy.

Good study habits can send those grades soaring. Read your assignments completely. Break long assignments into smaller bits to make them easier to finish. Do your hardest work first. Finish your homework, then take some time out for play or TV.

Study with a friend. Test each other, use flash cards, and ask questions when you don't understand. On some problems, two heads are better than one.

All FOX KIDS are smart kids, so give these study tips a try. Remember, if they work for Taz, you know they will work for you!

THE EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW

Super Dave here with a TOTALLY KIDS exclusive! As you know, I am the world's greatest stunt daredevil of all time. But perhaps you didn't know that now I am going to be WOWing you every Saturday morning with my own show on the Fox Kids Network! Because I'm such an incredibly famous, world-renowned hero and national treasure, I agreed to do the following interview for the Fox Kids Club magazine (but only if you promise to read it!)

TOTALLY KIDS: How did you first get started doing stunts?

Super Dave: When I was five years old, the school bus would come by the house to pick me up. My father would fire me out of a cannon, and I would land on the cement in front of the kids. The kids would cheer, and I loved that. I also loved flying in the air... I wasn't crazy about the landing, but nothing's perfect.

TOTALLY KIDS: Would you want to see your kids grow up to be daredevils?

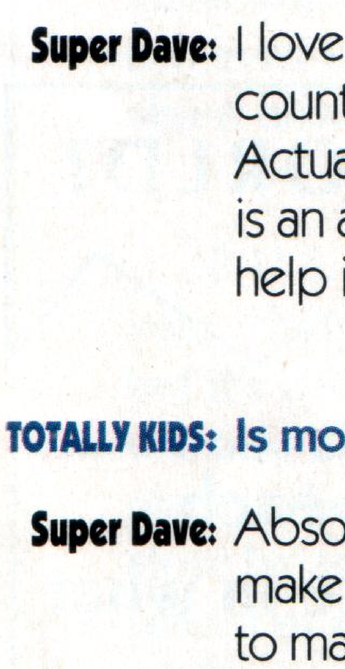

Super Dave: I just want to live to see my kids grow up.

TOTALLY KIDS: What's your favorite kind of music?

Super Dave: I love all kinds of music: rock, country, rap... you name it, I love it. Actually, my favorite musical sound is an ambulance siren, because I know help is on the way.

TOTALLY KIDS: Is money important to you?

Super Dave: Absolutely not. I do what I do to make people happy, to entertain them, to make them forget about their problems. I don't care about money... as long as I'm paid enough to have a car, a swimming pool, a tennis court, stables with about 40 horses, a private plane, my own golf course and a 100,000 seat stadium where I can rehearse my stunts... I'm happy. The money will come later.

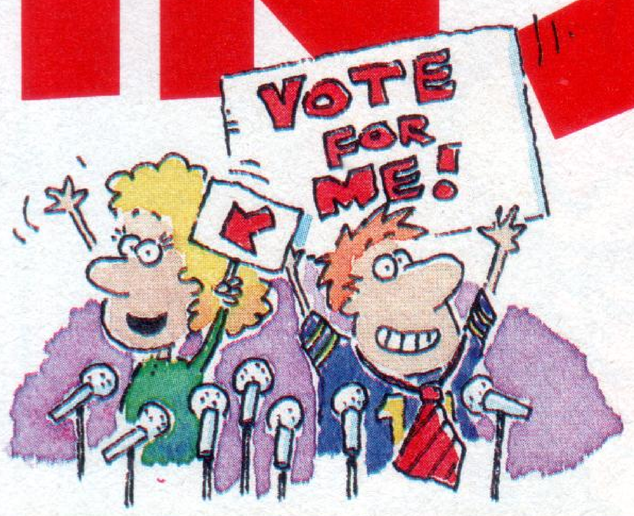

TOTALLY KIDS: What advice would you give to kids?

Super Dave: Respect your parents, and never lie, ...and collect as much Super Dave merchandise as you can.

Be there when Super Dave blasts onto Fox every Saturday morning.

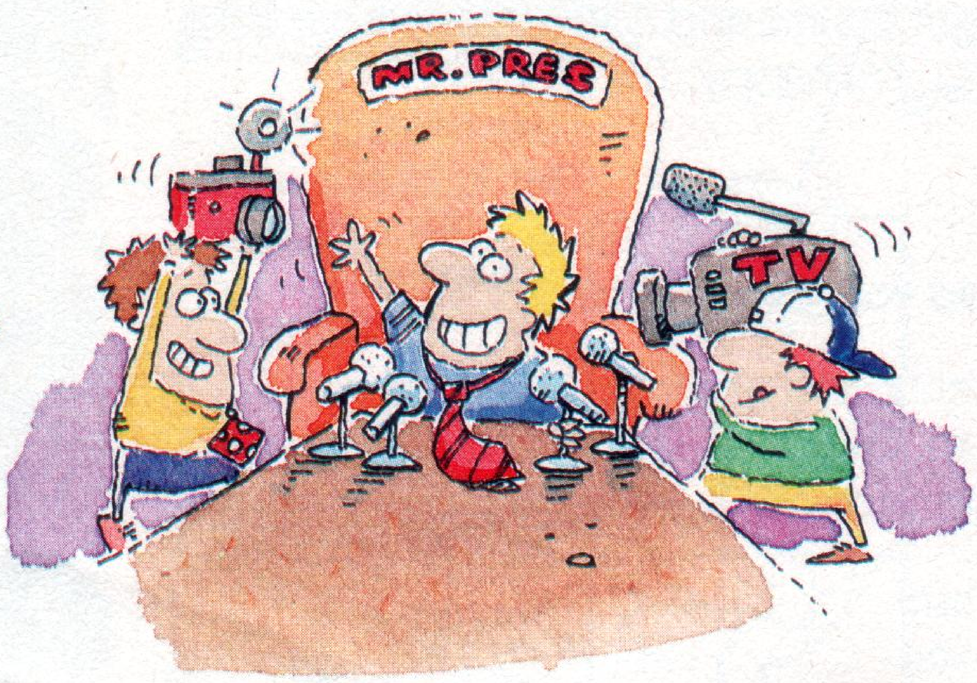

FOX KIDS GET OUT THE VOTE IN 1992!

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO CHANGE THE WORLD?

You really can, you know! Because we live in a democracy, we each have a voice in our government. Even a kid can make a difference in what happens in the world. But first you have to get involved!

Imagine yourself as President!

When you vote in school for class officers, for example, you are preparing to vote for other important things when you grow up. One thing's for sure, one of YOU is going to be President someday! Cool, huh? It's true.

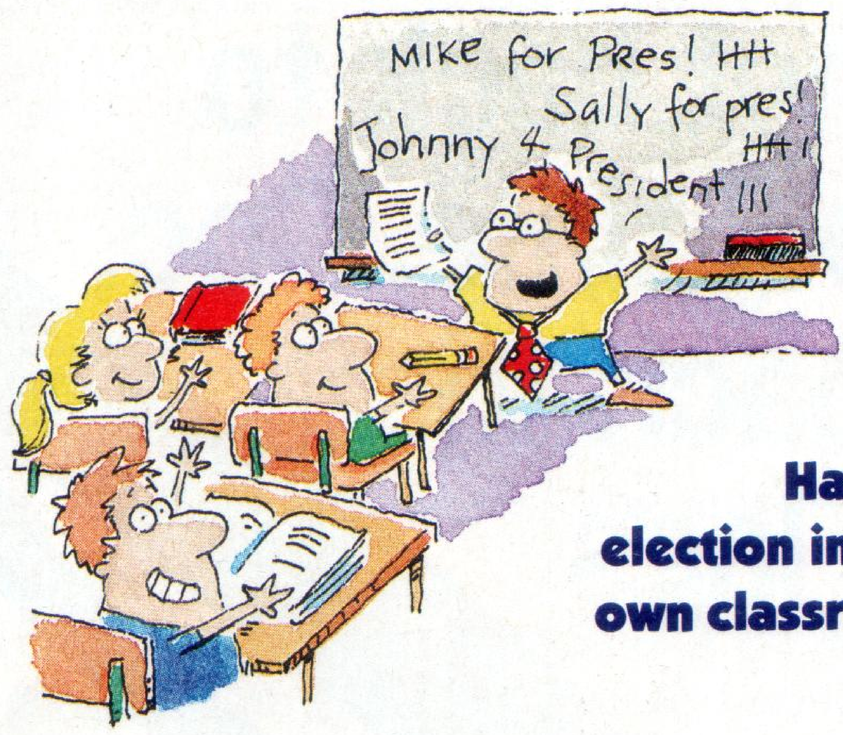

The 1992 Presidential election will be held November 3rd. All Fox Kids can take part in this exciting national election by watching the candidates speak on television. Listen to what they say they are going to do about pollution, for example. Read about the candidates and the elections in newspapers, magazines and at the library. Even though you can't officially vote in a real national election yet, you CAN get your class to hold a mock election and see how your choice compares to the real election outcome.

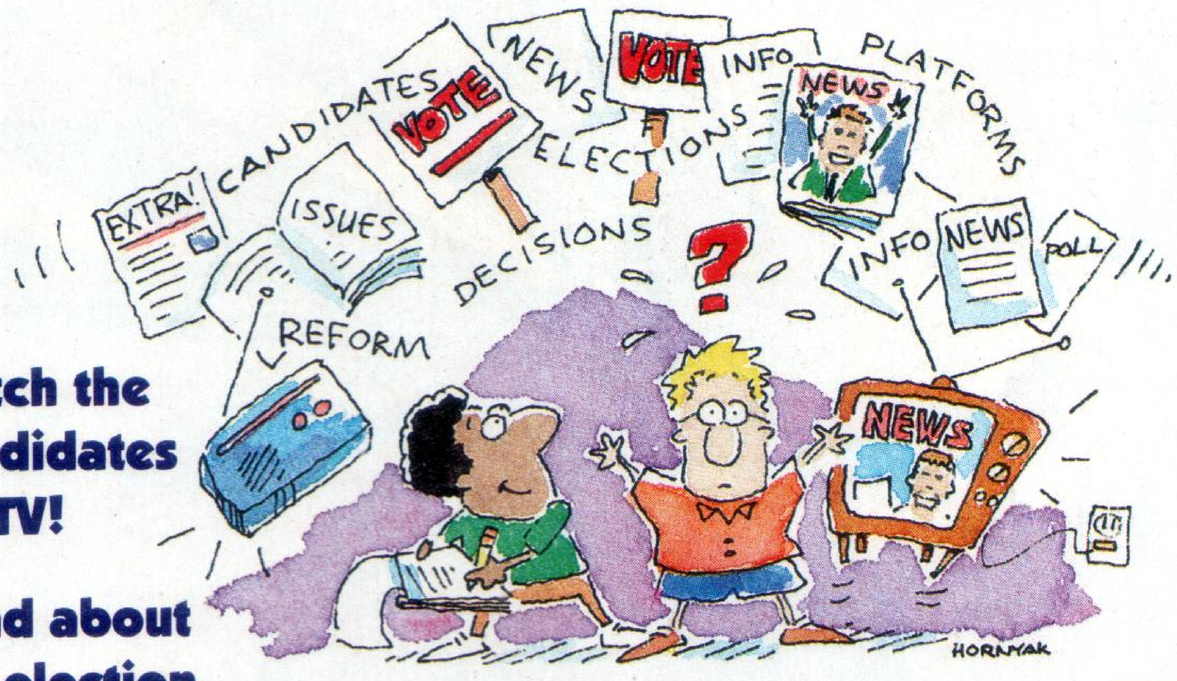

Your parents, older brothers and sisters and other adults will be voting for our next President. They'll try to pick the best candidate according to what he says he will do about things like ecology, health, jobs and education. Based on what you've read and heard, you'll be able to express your opinion about the candidates to your parents and teachers. Talk with them if you have questions about what's going on. You can even write to the candidates about how you feel! Try it!

All U.S. citizens have the right to vote. They must be registered to vote, but it's easy to do. By registering they will also find out the nearest polling place (where you vote). It's always close by and might be located at your school or church! Encourage all the adults you know to register and vote. Have your parents take you to the polls with them so you can learn how the voting process works firsthand.

It's fun and easy to learn about our government. Remember, every vote is important and does make a difference.

Have an election in your own classroom!

Watch the candidates on TV!

Read about the election in newspapers and magazines!

Express your opinion!

KIDS VOTING USA program

Kids in eleven states will have the chance to vote with their parents this year as part of the Kids Voting USA program. These kids learn about candidates, issues, and the democratic process in school. Their votes are counted and reported on TV and in newspapers. To find out more about how you can set up a Kids Voting Program in your area, write to:

KIDS VOTING USA

May I have your attention, please. I'd like to say a little something...

BUGS!!!

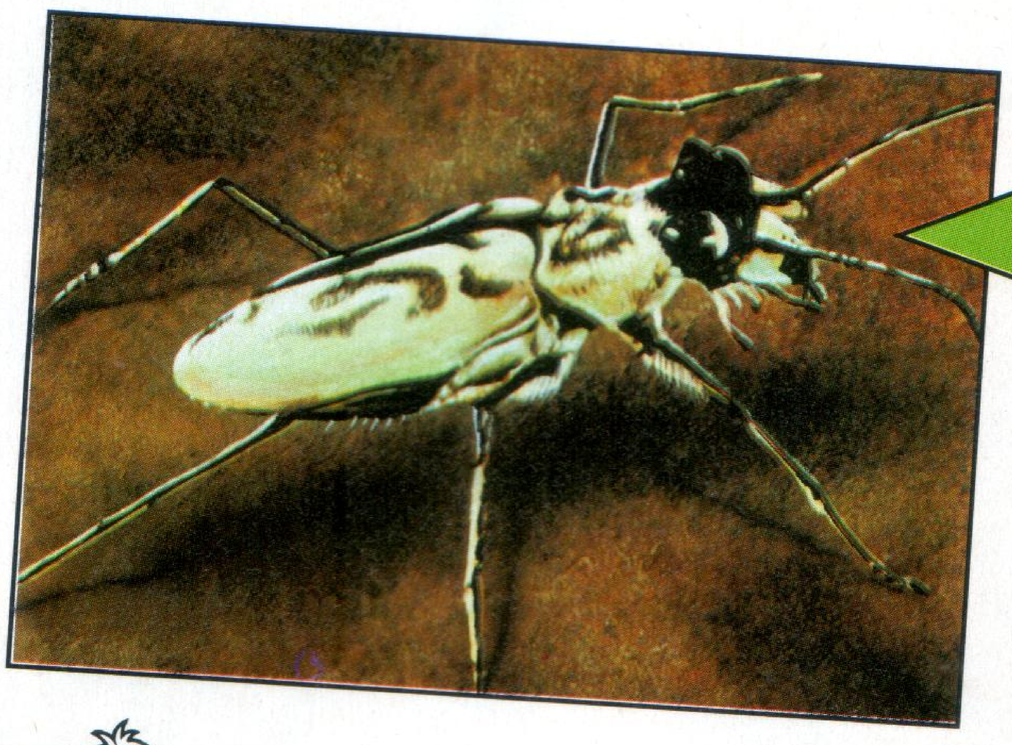

I want you to meet some of my close personal friends. They're ugly, gross and creepy—just like me. Yes, they're bugs! And you know I love 'em.

But even if they look weird, some of them are good to have around. I know, I know, you're saying to yourselves, "Good? Bugs? Are you out of your mind?" Well, yes, of course, but you've got to trust me on this one, kids.

Take the LADYBUG. It eats lots of sticky, gooey aphids to keep them from ruining flowers and plants. But if you ask me, both hit the spot, ...MMMM!

How about my pal, the TIGER BEETLE? It gobbles down flies, spiders and other bugs. And bunches of fuzzy caterpillars! I like caterpillars, too. Like fuzzy french fries! ...MMMM.

Whoa! Check out this mosquito-munching DRAGONFLY! With four wings, dragonflies can zoom in and snap up their prey faster than you can say the B-word three times. But now, it's "Bye-bye, Skeeters, Hello Eaters!" Come to papa! I-I-It's chow time! ...MMMM.

See, it's like I've been telling you Fox Kids all along. Even if bugs drive you buggy, some of these creepy crawlers are your friends. So, remember what the B-guy says, "DON'T BUG MY BUGS!"

I'll "ketchup" with you later, guys.

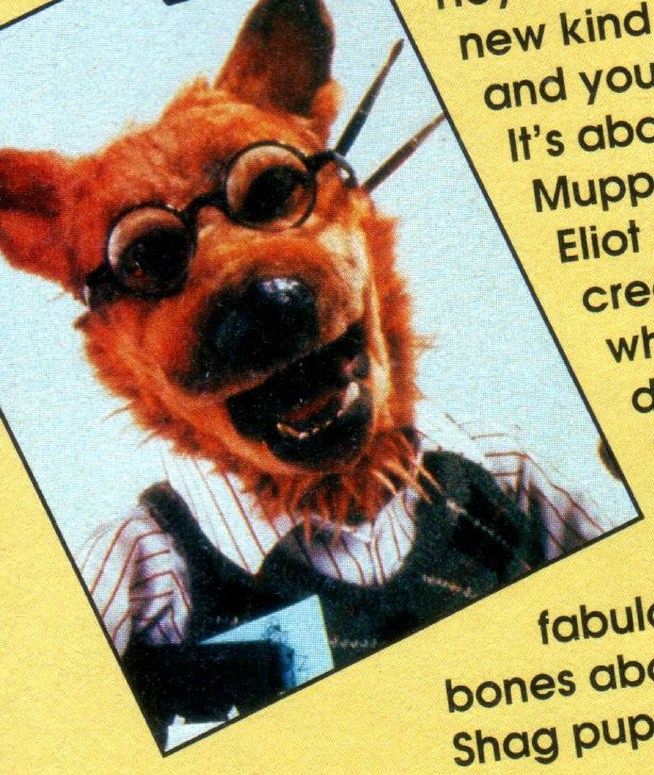

No thanks, Doc! This Bugs will stick to carrots!

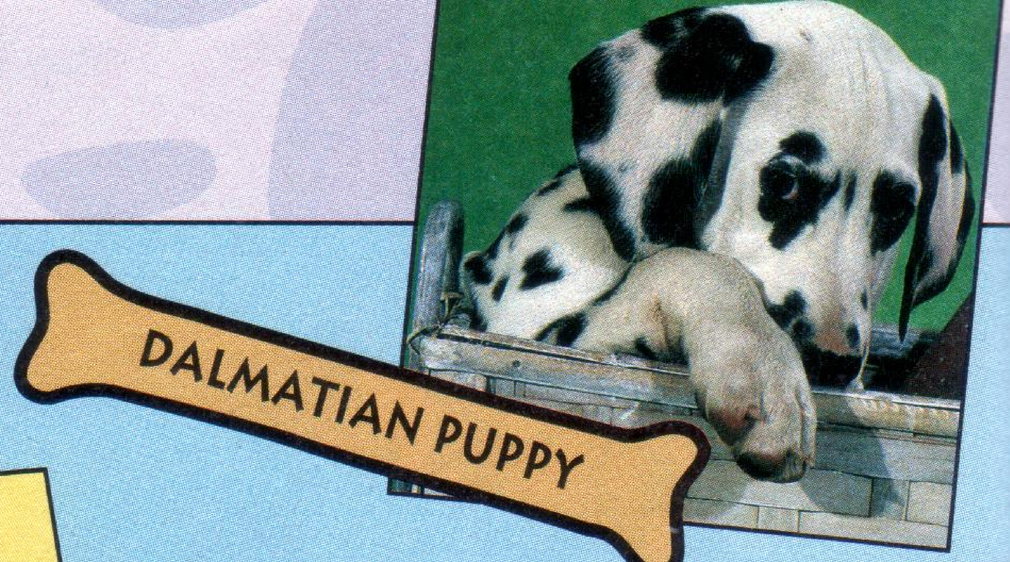

Beetlejuice busts loose every weekday on Fox.

Jim Henson's

DOG CITY

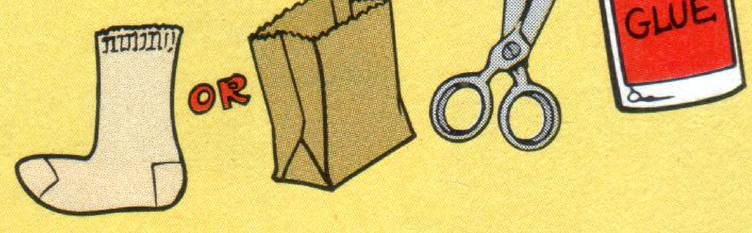

Hey Fox Kids, this Fall check out a totally new kind of show. It's called Dog City—and you've never seen anything like it. It's about a lovable, tail-waggin' Muppet dog artist named Eliot Shag. Eliot uses his pencil and paws to create a canine cartoon world which stars Ace Hart, a heroic doggie detective with a nose for trouble. Sometimes Eliot even gets in on the cartoon action himself! Eliot will be your fabulous new furry friend, make no bones about it! Now, you can make an Eliot Shag puppet of your own—it's easy!

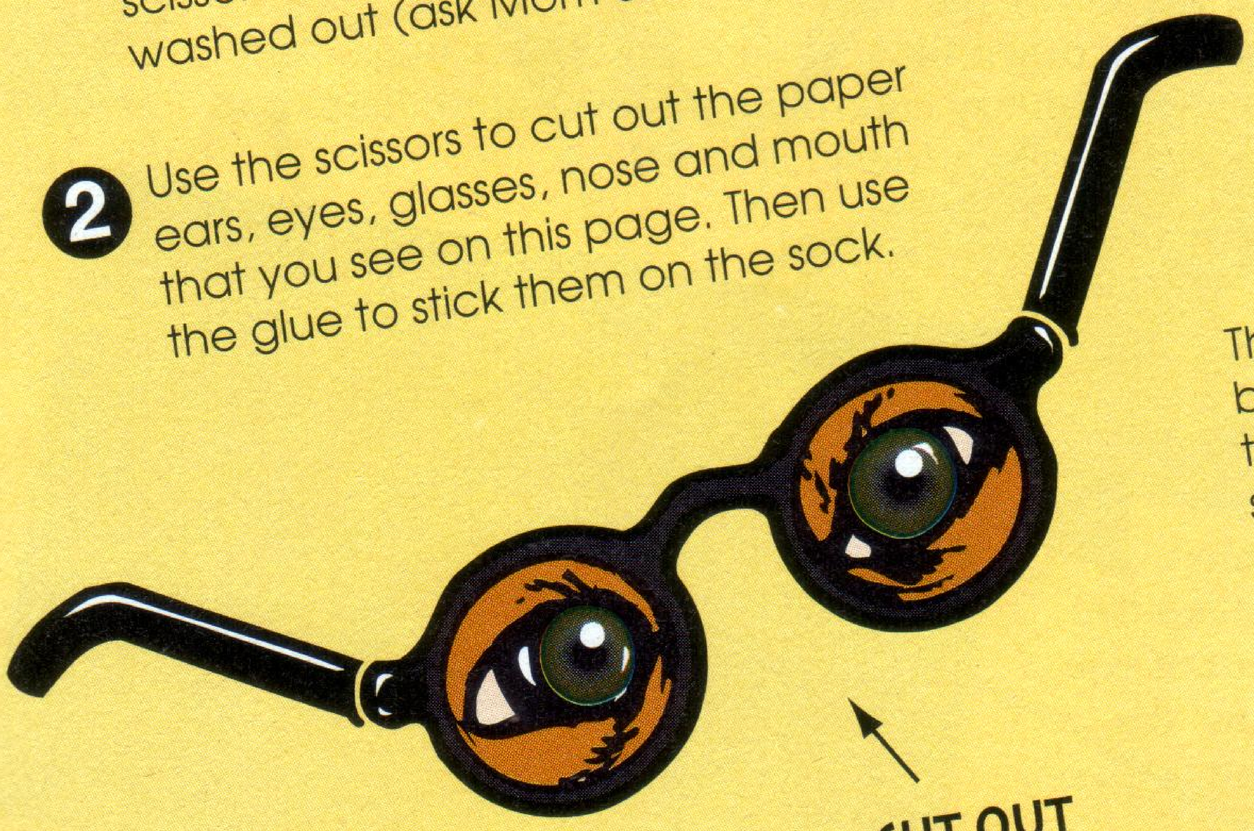

MAKING AN ELIOT SHAG PUPPET

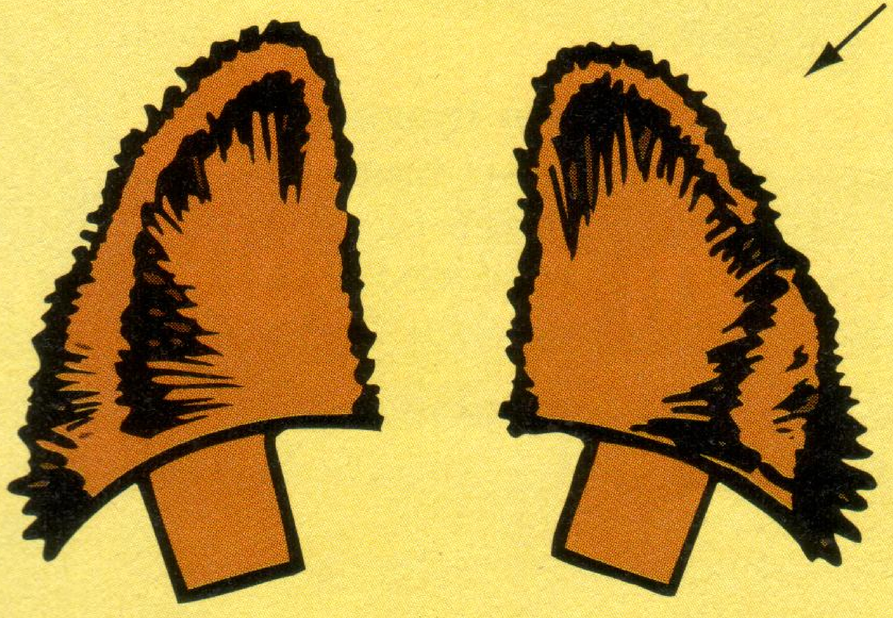

1 Okay, Fox Kids, find an old sock (or a paper bag). Next, get a pair of scissors and some glue that can be washed out (ask Mom or Dad).

2 Use the scissors to cut out the paper ears, eyes, glasses, nose and mouth that you see on this page. Then use the glue to stick them on the sock.

3 Wait until the glue is dry. Then you'll be all set to put on a show with your own Eliot Shag puppet.

A Shar-pei's skin is big enough to cover a much larger dog. So it's tough to keep it from getting wrinkled!

The Chow Chow is the only dog to have a blue-black tongue. Also they have very thick fur.

WHY DO THEY KEEP WASHING ME? I'M SUPPOSED TO HAVE SPOTS!

TO THE DOGS

SHAR-PEI

BASENJI PUPPIES

The Basenji (ba-ZEN-jee) is a strange dog. He may murmur, yodel—or even snarl—but he won't bark. Basenjis make great pets. But not very good watch dogs.

YORKSHIRE TERRIER PUPPY

Grooming's a hairy problem for a Yorkshire Terrier show dog. He needs a ribbon to keep his hair out of his eyes. He has to have a mask to keep his face clean when he eats. And if that's not bad enough— the poor dog has to wear hair curlers! Even the boys!

DESCRAMBLE THE CHARACTERS

HELP! Somehow these Fox characters got their bodies mixed up on the pages of your TOTALLY KIDS Magazine! Each character is split into three parts. Each part has a number. Find the right head for the right body for the right feet. Put the correct number for each part in the correct square below to unscramble the characters.

	HEAD	MIDDLE	FEET
TAZ

THE NAME GAME

Help these Fox characters find their names. There is a letter in each line to help get you started. After you have written in each name, read down the row of purple boxes to discover a secret message.

REDRAW THIS PICTURE TO DISCOVER WHO THIS SOON-TO-BE FAMOUS FOX CHARACTER IS:
